

Job Seekers go “Beyond the Basics”

The hardest job you may ever have is looking for a job.

If you are currently unemployed, or know someone who has lost their job, please come to a free introductory presentation, “Beyond the Basics: Secrets of Highly Successful Job Seekers”.

You will leave the 90-minute session with a new perspective and a few new tools to fire up your job search, including how to:

- Manage your most important trait
- Commit your job mindset to find the job
- Present yourself with confidence
- Create a resume that gets you in the door
- Target the search and the approach
- And much more ...

The facilitator, Diane Siegel, is a personal and business coach with over 20 years experience in career planning, leadership development and enhancing communication effectiveness. She has coached hundreds of individuals since founding her coaching practice in 1996. She is a Master Certified Coach through Coach University and the International Coach Federation, a Certified Mentor Coach, senior faculty for Coach University, and is certified through Corporate Coach University International to develop leadership competencies and coaching skills in managers.

Job Loss Support Group

at First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth

Job loss/transition can be a stressful time but it may also be a time of accelerated growth if we pay attention to what is going on in our lives. The Job Loss Support Group is a place to talk about the struggles and find safe support for facing the challenges. It is also a place to find encouragement and insights in being mindful about what may be learned in the midst of change.

Facilitated by trained counselors

Free to all participants

Groups run for 6 weeks and then begin again

No new participants are accepted after the 2nd meeting

The Texas Workforce Commission is the state government agency charged with overseeing and providing workforce development services to employers and job seekers of Texas. For job seekers, TWC offers career development information, job search resources, training programs, and, as appropriate, unemployment benefits. While targeted populations receive intensive assistance to overcome barriers to employment all Texans can benefit from the services offered by TWC and our network of workforce partners.

The Texas Workforce Commission is part of a local/state network dedicated to developing the workforce of Texas. The network is comprised of the statewide efforts of the Commission coupled with planning and service provision on a regional level by 28 local workforce boards. This network gives customers access to local workforce solutions and statewide services in a single location — Texas Workforce Centers.

The Center for Creative Transformation

At First United Methodist Church of Fort Worth

We live in a time of dramatic paradigm shift which challenges all of us to re-imagine the ways we have traditionally understood ourselves, our work and our relationships. As we seek to understand the source of chaos, stress and disease in our world, we are led to new insights and experiences that have the power to transform our lives. We join in a new renaissance of spirit for ourselves and the communities in which we live and work. This is the deep soul work to which we are called today and the Center for Creative Transformation is a gathering of courageous people who are choosing to share that journey. We invite you to join us!
